Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.

Original data: 1860 U.S. census, population schedule. NARA microfilm publication M653, 1,438 rolls. Washington, D.C.: National Archives and Records Administration, n.d.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1900 United States Federal Census, the Twelfth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, address, relationship to the head of household, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age at last birthday, marital status, number of years married, the total number of children born of the mother, the number of those children living, birthplace, birthplace of father and mother, if the individual was foreign born, the year of immigration and the number of years in the United States, the citizenship status of foreign-born individuals over age twenty-one, occupation, and more. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1900 Federal Census. Learn more...

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1900 United States Federal Census, the Twelfth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, address, relationship to the head of household, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age at last birthday, marital status, number of years married, the total number of children born of the mother, the number of those children living, birthplace, birthplace of father and mother, if the individual was foreign born, the year of immigration and the number of years in the United States, the citizenship status of foreign-born individuals over age twenty-one, occupation, and more. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1900 Federal Census. Learn more...

How lovely to have Christmas to remind us every year
To take some time to celebrate those things we hold most dear--
How lovely to have family

BREWSTER ANCESTRY

WILLIAM BREWSTER

WILLIAM BREWSTER #571 was born in England about 1567 and died at Plymouth, Massachusetts on 10 April 1634. His parents were WILLIAM BREWSTER #572 and his wife PRUDENCE #573. As a child he lived in Scrooby, England and in 1580 entered Peterhouse, one of the Colleges forming Cambridge University, but did not graduate. He served as a messenger to a prominent member of Queen Elizabeth's court and visited the Netherlands in 1588 with that gentleman. Later he was a postmaster and letter carrier at Scrooby, where his father had been. He married his wife MARY #574 in 1591. She died in Plymouth on 17 April 1627. He was a dissenter from the Church of England and then became a leading member of the small group of Pilgrims in Scrooby. After 1606 a group of these Scrooby Pilgrims went to Leyden, Holland to find greater freedom of worship.

William Brewster was an elder in this Leyden congregation and printed and sold religious books. He sailed for America on the Mayflower in August 1620 with his wife and two of their sons, as the religious leader of the Pilgrims. Other children came later. He assisted in drafting the Compact and was one of the signers. In addition to being the ruling elder of the church at Plymouth he was active in civic matters and due to his wisdom was second only to Governor Bradford in influence and was the most learned of all the Pilgrims. The inventory of his estate, valued at 107 pounds, indicates he possessed a large number of books and it listed a violet colored coat. Of their children one was PATIENCE #575, who was born in England probably before 1600, and died in Plymouth shortly before 12 December 1634. She married THOMAS FRANCE #568 on 5 August 1624. Patience came to America on the ship Anne in July 1625 with her sister Fear Brewster.

Hello —

Nov. 3, 1994

Willie and Ben

This card is a bit early - but,
better early than late !!

We hope to go over to Sebbies around Thanksgiving or a week before, as we aren't sure yet, I thought I'd not take a chance on getting involved and forgetting all together.

All's well here. Cliff had about 3 weeks of a very achey back - sore and achey legs. He is much better now.

Today he has taken his boat to Massoula (where he bought it) to have it serviced for the winter. He had hoped to go out one more time but the weather turned cold before his back got better.

We went to Massoula yesterday so I could shop - all day. We have a new ~~Wal Mart~~ Wal Mart up there plus I had some other stops to do. My legs talked to me last night. They kept telling me that I had done them wrong."

We thought of you last Sunday as we watched the Braves play. We enjoy Elway. He may not be your favorite person, but he can play football.

Willie, we hope your knee is getting better. If not, what can you do about it? more surgery? My friend's knee isn't much better, but she had several Tears - a little different problem than yours.

Believe it or not - I've started addressing Christmas Cards. I'd like to get that much done before December.

The kids are all well - at the moment. Flu season is coming so that may not last long.

yesterday - I mean, the day before yesterday - I made Whiskey cookies. They are a fruit cake type and I love them. In fact, I like fruit cake. This recipe makes 12 doz. so I have lots to share with friends.

Well, you two be good.

Have a good day, Willie. You aren't a year older, but a year more experienced.

Love Ya
Bernie

Hi

Thurs

Arrived safe & sound, but a bit weary. Was even 15 min. early - That's a rare thing when flying. Both planes were only about 1/2 full so we were able to spread out a bit.

Thanks again for a lovely visit. I'm looking forward to hearing you are feeling real good in the not too distant future.

Love to you & Ben

(Maybe)

Hello everyone!

Well 2 months has gone by and again its my turn to write. We are all well, so thats good. Hope for the same for everyone else. The weather is beginning to warm up some. In fact we will be hitting the 90's degrees starting tomorrow if it didn't hit it today. Seemed like it did as I was very warm. Won't be long before we have the old swamp cooler or refridderation on day and night again. As long as the humitivity stays down it won't be that bad. Ha-Ha.

Seems like all Bill and I do is work. But we have been told that is good for us so we say okay, we won't complain (too much!) But since I have started full time now I don't seem to have as many hours in a day or a week as I used to have. But we have all worked at one time or another so we understand that don't we?

Craig and Amy got moved to Texas. Craig drove the 20 foot truck it took to move their belongings and Amy drove Craigs car. They sold Amy's car before they left. They will be looking for a newer one for her pretty soon. they are trying to get everything else done before they worry about that. So far they are doing fine with one car. Craig is working 10 to 12 hours a day so Amy takes Craig to work. Then she goes to work at the Texas Barbecue and then goes and picks Craig up when he gets off. Its working out fine for now. Have talked to Craig a couple of times since he left. He hasn't had time to see much around Corpus Christi yet but what little they have seen is okay he says. They are about a hours drive to the beach and Amy has been there once to look around but Craig hasn't been there yet. He says soon though. He says it may be a year before they come back to visit. Then the last time I talked to him he said Amy might be back here soon. Her mother who lives in Germany and is married to a German are in Arizona for a visit. They will pay for Amy to fly here and home so she can visit with her mother. Craig said she will be here for about 1 to 3 weeks depending on how much time she can get off from work. Don't know what the date will be when she comes. Their address is==6717 Everhard Road #2413

Corpus Christi, Texas 78413
Tele.# is (512) 854-5068. Don't know what you would need it for but there it is.

I don't remember if I sent Kyle's new address or not so here it is also-- 1432 West Emerald #684 Tele.# is (602) 898-3800
Mesa, Arizona 85202

Kyle is doing just fine in his new place. He says he is all moved in now. Just needs to get a few things which he will do very slowly. First thing is a desk he says. So he is reading the ads and looking for used one. Hope he finds it.

Carrie went home and stayed there for about a week. Now her and Andrea are back. Ramon will be bringing all the furniture, dishes, toys, clothes, etc. down on friday. The kids have separated. If it is permanent or what noone knows at this point. And this was the couple that Bill and I thought would make it through thick or thin. But then again they may yet. Time will tell. In the meantime Carrie and Andrea are living with us. Bill and I were alone for a month. Just long enough for me to completely reorganized and spread out for the first time. Well we no longer are spread out and organized. But we will all fit into this house. We are really enjoying our time with Andrea and Carrie. Andra is a super good baby. Is really enjoyable and loveable to be around. Carrie is a great mother. Since getting down here she has gotten herself a job and a car. Ramon is keeping the one they bought in November. Carrie bought a 1990 Isuzu "Impluse" Is really a nice car. She should get lots of use out it. She is working in a Mexican restaurant called Serrano's. Works monday thru friday 11am to 5pm. Thats good hours for restaurant job. She is a hostess.

Sierra celebrated her 2nd birthday in March. She is really growing. What a doll she is. And talks non stop. I do believe she has passed her mother up and talks more than she does. Never though anyone would ever be able to do that but this 2 year old dynamite sure does. Must say she rules the roost at the Johnson household. But they all love it. She is in a growing sprout right now and is getting tall. Her and Tyler are about the same height right now and Tyler is about maybe $\frac{1}{2}$ inch taller. Also Tyler is 7 months older if that makes a difference.

Speaking of Tyler, he is all boy. In one months time he had to ^{have} 3 stitches above one eye, wore a cast for a few days on one arm as the doctors couldn't decide if his elbow was broken or not (it wasn't just bruised real bad) and then before they could stop him he went up and grabbed hold of a hot exhaust pipe on a car and burnt his hand real bad. Lori is beginning to get paranoid with him. She thinks she doesn't watch him close enough and I keep reassuring her she does that he is just a $2\frac{1}{2}$ year old active boy. How he hurt his elbow was he was pushed by a neighbor boy off of his play gym or what ever that thing is called. Anyhow he had landed on his arm wrong. The xrays made it look like it was broken maybe so they had a specialist take a look at it. He decided it wasn't but that it was bruised super bad. For now he is doing fine. No cuts or bruises at all.

One weekend Bill and I babysat Tyler for 4 days and 3 nights. We thoroughly had loads of fun with him but at the end of that time we were completely exhausted. Grampa and grandson are great buddies and get along beautifully. They spent many hours out in the back yard together.

Lavee and Yosh came over from San Diego one weekend in March. On Sat. Lavee sat around and visited with me while Bill went to work and Yosh went out to the Gila River Indian Community. south of Chandler. Yosh is Japanese and he with his parents and brothers were one of the thousands of Japanese that during WWII was sent from the west coast to live in the middle of the Arizona desert in an Internment Camp. They spent 3 years there. This was an American refugee camp. They were not allowed to leave there at all. But they had their own hospital, churches, newspaper, shoe repair shop, canteen & high schools. Anything that was needed they received but was not allowed to leave. Anyway this was the 50th year reunion of its closure. Japanese from all over the U.S. came. Now there is nothing there but a monument to them and cement slabs of the various buildings. Yosh found where he had once lived there. Was able to figure out where the dining hall was, where the hospital and a friend's home was. On Sunday we went out to have Yosh show us around. Yosh' family was very well off financially and when this happened they lost everything. But he is not one bit bitter. He says sometimes things in life are not good. This was one of those times. Actually Yosh was young enough that it was no big deal to him. It was just another adventure in life but to his parents it was very hard. His father died in the 1950's but his mother is still alive. She is 94 years old almost. Anyway as I like history I enjoyed seeing this even though there was really nothing there.

Bennie, after reading Willie's letter i'm sure you have figured out that Willie is in Arizona. She has rented a 2 bedroom condo (or something like that) and now is trying to recuperate from her various illnesses. I went over Sat. and we did some minor cleaning and then went out to eat Mexican food for lunch. Had a real nice day even though it wore Willie out. Then Sunday, the next day Willie traveled over here and we did a little family research work. She went home to Scottsdale to recuperate from her 2 days with me. Anyhow she is going to brave it again and come back tomorrow afternoon after I get home from work. More research work maybe. Anyhow it's good to see her again even though I wear her out. Wish you could join us. She may be here for about another month. Ben is coming down on Easter weekend to visit with her and then will go back home again.

Well its getting late so I need to close for this time. Sorry its a short one but its the best I can do for this time. Do write soon and everyone take good care of yourselves.

Love from us all

Maryalice + Bill

P.S. Am sending Jason's picture back to you. Both Willie and I tryed to get copies made but no one would do it as it says not to copy on the back of it. Oh well we tryed. And thanks for allowing us to keep it all this time trying to get a copy which we didn't get. It is a very cute picture

Hello - all of you.

We are expecting Debbie to arrive next Monday and stay until May 5th. She called this last Monday to say she had made up her mind. As you already know tiredness is the major problem left over from her bad illness of 3 yrs ago. She wasn't sleeping well and lost much her Doctor refused to adjust her medication anymore. She said Debbie is suffering from exhaustion and to take a month leave of ~~absence~~ absence from work.

She is feeling a bit better, but being over here where there aren't any calls or her attention from family or friends etc - should help. We will enjoy just sitting around.

I'm in the midst of trying to get over my "creeping crud". This is going on 4 months. Went to Doc. this past Monday. Had Series & chest Xray and Blood Count checked - all were normal. So - next step is to go the allergy route - again. If that won't the problem I may just be having a series of virus infections for which there is nothing medical to help. They have to run their course. So I go to allergist on May 10th.

Well, enough of that sob story.

I last wrote Feb 25th. I know you will believe me when I say nothing exciting has happened.

The weather has been very mild.
We really missed the snow, tho
Cliff was relieved when he thought of all the plowing etc that he didn't have to do!! He sometimes wonders how long he'll be able to keep up this place - I tell him "when you can no longer crawl or put yourself up on your tractor."

Speaking of "Batteries". Cliff is bemoaning that we have to have another one for the Ford Truck.
I don't believe this one is quite 8 yrs old!!

I had no idea Haren had a sleep disorder. Jim Newcomb is feeling a little better. They have tried to treat his problem with Medication. I don't recall him ever saying anything about a helmet type device. I'll have to ask him.

By the way, where does the Bible say we'll have to learn about our post or we will relieve it? I've never heard that before. It is an interesting thought.

I'm really sorry I couldn't get down to Arizona. It might have done me some good. I just had too many things going and not enough energy to reroute things even if I could.

Some very dear friends are leaving May 2nd to move to Texas. I've been in charge of organizing a nice Farewell Reception for them which is this Sunday. After that I'm not doing any big projects for awhile. I want to feel good when Hagler and Family get here the last week of June. That should be a lot of fun. Dale is organizing a camping trip for the group. We'll use our trailer and 3 tents and camp in a campground up near the Flathead River - the North Fork - about 30-40 miles from the Canadian Border. That way all ~~they~~ ^{of them} can float the River during the day. That will be fun.

Everytime she writes Hoyle ends by saying 15 weeks, 12 weeks she is down to 10 weeks. They really love it here. They are bringing Joann's girl friend. she's a cute gal and very nice and she's not had a chance to take any trips. She asked Hoyle if they had to wait til June. I'm hoping I can find a local farmer who will take us all on a hay ride. I hope I'm not allergic to Hay - wouldn't that be a drag?

Poor Troy - It's hard to be a teenager. They are so aware of their inadequacies. Thank you, Mary, for the addresses.

I'm really sorry to hear of Carrie's problems. Maybe they can be resolved soon.

It is hard to keep up with your family. Glad all is well for the others. All the little ones keep life lively. In a way, I envy you.

Dale's two aren't babies anymore and sometimes I long to have one just sit with me. But, alas we both don't fit in my chair any longer. Of course, it is all their fault. How I wish that were an honest statement.

I'm sorry you couldn't get Jason's picture copied. If I ever find a way to do it I will.

One day this month the friend (who is moving) and I decided to spend the day together. I picked her up at 9am - we drove to Masoula, stopped, ~~talked~~ talked, lunched, talked, stopped and drove home at 5pm. When we said all day that's what we meant.

After all day all I bought was an over blouse to match the beige skirt you gave me, Willie. It looks real nice - but you can't have it back unless you lose a lot of weight. If you do I'll give it to you as a prize - so don't lose any weight until I get tired of it. Haha

My pen is low on ink and I'm low on any more news.

Hope you have improved your health, Willie. I don't have your address - so I'll send this to Mary. You girls can figure out how to send the ^{Robin} letters. Want to reverse this? whatever!!

our best to all the families.

Love Ya

Thank You

I really do love the cowboy !!

praying for a complete

Hello Willie

Decided it was time I got your tote bag to you. Thanks so much for loaning it to me. I appreciated that immeansly (is that word spelled correctly? Don't think so!)

Also wanted to get all the pictures sent to you. I believe thats everything.

Carrie, Ramon & Andrea were here last week and we celebrated Andrea's birthday on last monday instead of her birthday which was last sunday (Yesterday). I took two rolls of film but only one roll turned out. I don't know if I didn't load the camera right, if there was something wrong with the film or what! I know the camera works as I took two rolls of film at Brandy's feis on saturday and it seemed to work fine there. I will find out for sure when I take them to get developed tomorrow. Andyway all I have of Andrea is her opening her presents. They did turn out real cute too. And I was the only one who was taking pictures as Sue couldn't find her camera. So all the cute ones of Andrea with her cake I don't have. But two days later Sue had Andrea for the day and borrowed her mother in laws camera to take pictures. She took a few at the park and then brought me the camera and asked me to finish taking up the roll of the kids together which I did. I didn't have time to wait for Sue to come the camera and film and get it developed. I went ahead and Had it developed. The ones I took turned out real cute. Anyway what I am getting around to is do you want a few copies of these pictures or not? Let me know okay?

Have enclosed pictures of what I took in Colorado. Also copies of what I was suppose to get of Bennie's pictures. I am sending hers back to her at the same time I'm mailing this off to you. There is that one of Jason I Didn' (really couldn't) get made. I tryed 4 different places nad no one would do it. Hopefully you can get it made. If not its our lost. The pictures of Andrea and the Leon house is made from Carrie's negetives.

Have to stop and get it wrapped up for mailing. Then its time for me to fix dinner. I'm getting hungry. Hope to hear from you soon. If you want more of anything I sent just let me know.

Love

Maryalice

Dear sisters and brother-in-laws

Hello and how are you all doing? Bet you though I was never going to write again. What can I say? Busy as usual! Must say it has been hectic around here since coming home from Colorado. But we hope this finds everyone in good health. Everyone here is on the mend. We've all had the various flu bugs and colds, with some of us haveing both, plus the allergys acting up for some of us too. Then I had to throw in an urine infection in there too that was bad enough for me to have to look up a old doctor I know in town and get medication to get rid of that. Bill's cold is refusing to go away but each day he keeps telling its better than the day before. I guess he knows what he is talking about but I do question him some when he says that as I know he is trying to make me not worry about him but I do anyway so he might as well tell like it is. But he won't! So on to something else.

Just reread that first paragraph. Wow, I hope you understand that one. I didn't and I typed it. Ha-Ha

I mentioned in my last letter that Lori and Al had sold their business "Firesafe America". Well they got it back. The people decided they didn't want to do all that work, so they gave it back. Al is so busy in the store he has no time to work the chimney business. Don't know if they are going to try to sale it again or just close it down. Quess in time I will have a answer to that one. But the Goldsmith family is doing just fine. They are the ones that seem to have mended nicely from their round of illnesses. Thats good, right!

Robin & Gary aren't recuperating as fast as everyone else. On Gary first it was the flu, then allergy's and now Sierra's cold he inherited. But he is getting better and it hasn't stopped him any. He is still working. Robin went the same way as Gary. Sierra gave them a wopper of a cold. Sierra wasn't that alful sick when she had it even though she was a little miserable. But now she feels fine. Oh boy does she feel fine. Wish I had a little of her energy. Brandy and Ryan had minor colds but are well now. Brandy is on her way to Redlands, California with her Grandma Miranda this weekend for a feis there. They missed last year but are going this year. She really enjoys her dancing.

Carrie called ^{this} morning and said for sure she, Ramon and Andrea will be here for Christmas. In fact they will ^{be} here from Dec. 10th to the 27th. That will be a nice long visit. We all really miss them. Carrie called Thanks-giving morning and said she was sad. And she sounded sad too. I asked what was wrong and she said she missed not being home for the dinner. I told her she was not a big eater and didn't even like everything I fixed and she said what she did like and would I make it for christmas. So being mom I said yes.

So on christmas Eve all the kids, their spouses, kids, girlfriends and all will come for Carrie's dinner as it has become known as. Christmas morning (mid morning) they all will come back for the gift exchange and then that afternoon late we will all gather at Robin's for another dinner and Garys family will be there too. So guess christmas planning is almost done down here. And its only the first of December. Wow! Are we good down here or what? Ha-Ha.

Kyle finally broke down and bought himself a bed. Got just a frame and queen size mattress and box springs. It is so hard to for him to actual buy something. But it is a real nice set. Hopefully it will ^{help} him back some. He has had to many minor falls and/or injuries thru the years as a chimney sweep and it is beginning to take its toll on him. He is not in a lot of pain but it does bother him. Won't be long and he will give up his chimney sweep business all together. He is very busy on his pool cleaning and repair business and doing real well there too where that will be his sole job. He is still looking at houses, condos, etc. but hasn't bought one yet. Almost did a couple of times but decided not ^{one} for reason or other before going thru with it. I know he will someday but don't know when. He is still talking about getting a apartment too so really don't know what he will do. He is welcome to stay here as long as he wants. We don't mind having him around at all.

Craig is not happy at Perkins. He quit them and next saturday was suppose to be his last day. They offered him everything they could think of and he still said no he was going. Where he had no idea at the time. His boss had finally had it up to here and did quit. He was offered a job in Texas by another friend of both his and Craigs. So his boss took it. Now the the first guy left that job for something else in the same company. So Craigs boss has the first guys job. And the boss has asked Craig if he would be interested in the one he had originally went to Texas for. So in about 3 weeks this guy is hand delivering a letter to Craig with what the job will be and Craig will think about it and maybe take it. In the meantime even though Perkins knows about this other job in Texas they have convinced Craig to stay with them for awhile and they met his for lack a better word demands. All he asked for was a raise which they gave him and he gave up his management job for the time being. He figured they might as well get someone else trained for his job as he does not plan to stay with them for much longer. Anyhow the job offer in Texas is in Corpus Cristie, Texas. Kenny Rogers (the country western singer) is opening about 10 chicken restaurants (supposely real nice ones) thru out Texas. It will be known as Kenny Rogers Roosters Restaurant. Craigs job will be if he takes it will be asst. General Manager of the restaurant in Corpus Cristie. Supposely they will pay to move him down there and make it worth his while to make the move. But like he says they have to make it worth his while or they can forget it. He sure is fiesty for a 22 year old, huh? That means if he takes this job is his days (or nights) in the kitchen are basically done. He says if he wants to he can go in there and cook or if the kitchen needs help in some way he can go in there also. Otherwise his main job will in the front at the cash register, dealing with the public and the employees. Quess all this will happen sometime around Feb. If he goes to Texas he will go with all his stuff and his firlfriend Amy. Thank goodness Amys dad likes Craig. But Amy is 22 also so dad don't have much say in the matter. But luckily dad approves of Craig so Amy has no problems in that area. Only problem about the whole thing is Craigs mom and dad will really miss him. But being as he is his own man thats all we can do. Besides this might be a good deal for him.

I think in one of my letters I had explained how Robin is doing this what she calls her morman thing (I don't think this family talks about things to nicely at times down here). At the time she was doing it part time. Well now she does every week. It was where one day she cooked for four families and then for 3 days someone else cooks for the families. Anyway her day is now tuesdays. How this come about I don't know but one tuesday she had marinated chicken breasts in a homemade teriacki sause and then came over here and barbecued with her fathers help. Well this recipe that I have enclosed was one of her side dishes. I thought it was so good that I made you guys copies also. Try it and let me know how you like it. When I saw the recipe I though it sounded alful but I tasted it and really liked it. Robin found it in her weight watchers magazine she subscribed to. My 2 oldest girls are turning into real good cooks. I'm very pleased about that.

Got a letter from Aunt Essie a couple of weeks ago. Aunt Dovie died Sept. 30th in Borger, Texas. She had been real bad for about 3 years and had been living in a nursing home there. One of her twins had moved into her house and was taking care of things for her. This is twin that was crippled real bad with polio and he used a wheel chair or crutches to get around. I guess he is going to continue to live in her house. He was married but is divorced now. His twin brother had committed suicide quite a few years ago. Her oldest boy Gene Gasnell had visited Aunt Essie about 3 years in Col. Springs just before she moved to Texas. I guess his job has him traveling quite a bit. Now this just leaves Aunt Essie as the last one alive in her family.

In Oct. went to one of Brandys feis in Phoenix. Otherwise I have been busy working, working and working. But this week I've had it a little easier. Worked Monday and will work tomorrow. Then Friday am going over to Robins and we are going to clean her pantry. Then in the afternoon will go to my dusting job for a couple of hours. I love this job. This woman has the neatest house. Its full of antiques. Beautiful stuff. She also cleans houses on the side one day a week and works in an antique store one afternoon a week. The rest of the time she takes care of her mother who has alzheimers disease. That is not spelled corrected. But its the same thing Ronald Regan announced he has. She does this other stuff just to get away from her usual routine. Is a real nice lady. On Saturday I will take care of Tyler. Lori has gone back to helping Al out in the store one day a week and Saturday is the day she goes in. Thats for my convenience.

I just reread this letter. Think I had better quit doing that. Sure do make a lot of mistakes. Ha-Ha. Sure hope you can follow thru this. Also noticed I really goofed on the date at the very beginning. Today is Nov. 29th, not Dec. 1st. I'm a day ahead of myself. Its getting close to my bed time so I'll close for tonight. Will finish this up hopefully tomorrow night. So for now good night. Love ya all. Me

Today is Dec. 1, 1994

How about that? I got the date right this time!

Worked this morning. We did 4 houses. Robin cancelled tomorrow morning but I still have Phyllis's house of dusting tomorrow afternoon. So tomorrow morning I will have time to get my own house cleaned and most likely this in the mail to you. That the plan. Hope it falls in place. Ha-Ha.

We had a wonderful thanksgiving. Lavee and Yosh came over from San Diego to have thanksgiving dinner with us. She was good for my morale. Said my turkey and dressing tasted like her mothers. Now that is a compliment and a half as Bill and Lavee's mother definitely knew how to cook. I don't remember ever eating anything at her house that was not delicious. Anyway the day was a success and everyone went home full and happy.

I agree with Willie. Maybe it was the Society Page you got mentioned in but IT WAS THE SOCIETY PAGE. I know I've never hit the society page. Big town little town or a town in between I've NEVER (joy yjr dpvoryu)

Now is that good typing or what?????

I was trying to say that I have never hit the society page. Ha-Ha I do believe

Its time to quit typing this. I have probably got you all so confused you have no clue what I am trying to rattle on about. Amyway I'm proud of you for being mentioned on that page. Keep up the good works.

What a scare that must of been coming home to a fire so close to home. Happy it all turned out Good too.

Bet Karen is so excited about getting to come home for a visit. It will do mother and daughter both good. Merry christmas at home this year Karen.

Happy to hear that Cindy has a paying job now. Bet that is super for everyones peace of mind. I hope she thoroughly enjoys the job. It will be good for Cindy to associate with the world again. I wish her much success and happiness at the world of the working people.

How is the curtains for Cindy's sun room coming along. Thats one project I would not enjoy. I do not like to sew. Probably because there is no talent in that department for me. Ha-Ha.

Well I believe I have made a big enough mess on this letter so its time to sign off. We wish the Hortons and Browns and their families best wishes, best health and a very merry christmas and happy new year that is coming up.

Write soon and do take care.

Love you all

Maryalice

Dear Ben and Bill,

I'm not talking to Willie and Mary - the scampers. They managed to get the Round Robin letter to me just at Busy Christmas Time. But, poor me, I will do my best in this rotten situation.

Dec 19, 1994

I've decided to forgive and greet my Sisters. 'Tis the Season for Good Will.

As you can see I started this a week ago. I'm afraid this was not top ~~finite~~ Priority. I'm at the Gift Shop today (am) and was lost with also, but got busy.

According to my record I last wrote on Oct 17, so hopefully I'll have a little news to write about.

It was good to hear that Hunter had had his surgery and so pray all will continue to progress to a happy conclusion.

Mary mentioned that Cindy has a paying job now!! Wonderful!! Persistent prayer and not giving up trying will pay off. I hope she is able to stay with it and enjoy it.

By now Horen should be home for a few days. As busy as they are they

Dear Ben and Bill,

Jim just returned to Middle and Mary, the recuperator. They have agreed to get the house back better to me just at Gary, Christmas time. But, you may be well to say that is this rather situation.

Dec 12, 1994

Has decided to figure out just my father to the house for some time.

He was not in the house this morning but a friend of his was not at the house.
One of the things that I am not sure about but, but not happy.

According to my father's house and not at all.
So, I am not sure about the house.
It was good to hear that for the first time his happy and he was not at all content to go back to a happy situation.

Many mentioned that Gary's house for now it is not happy.
Gary and not going up to Gary's Gary off. I hope it is not to say about it to Gary.

By now, I am not sure about the house.

will appreciate a relaxed period of time just - having fun!! Willie, I'm so pleased ~~she~~^{they} could get home this year. This is your year to have family company.

Cindy and Hilda will love it, too. Won't it be fun to have family running in and out, laughing and teasing?

Thanks for the riddles, Willie. I'm saving them for the Boys. Forrest especially likes them. He has a great sense of humor.

This is my year for paintings. You gifted me with the old Home place. Then last week a friend who teaches High School Art called and asked if he could come up for a few minutes. Well, he came with a framed painting (about the size of the Home place or a little longer). He had painted it himself. He isn't the greatest painter, but pretty good. It is an old Water Mill with water splashing over the rocks. I'm just so delighted that anyone would do such a thing. He doesn't paint real often.

Willie did you make Curtains?

I don't ^{know} which one of you sent the recipe for Ranch Vegetables, but thank you. I might use it for Christmas. It sounds real good.

I've been quite busy the past few weeks.

I work in the gift shop at least twice a month - this month it will be three times. I do the Auxiliary Books and ~~type~~^{type} a report and go to the Board Meeting once a month. Yes, I can type and you would be able to read my letters a lot better if I would type. But, I hate to write letters on the typewriter. I can't think good. I have to write the letter out, then type. Twice the time. However, when I'm 80 I'll probably have to or you won't know what I'm saying at all. But - if we are all able to still hear - I could use the telephone.

We closed October out by having a group of friends over for a dinner party and ^{my} being in charge of a Pot Luck one Sunday at Church.

I tried to get all my Christmas shopping done in November and I pretty much succeeded. ^{on time?} I tried to get a lot of things done the last 2½ weeks before we left for Debbie's. I helped with the gift Shop Christmas Show one Friday (all day) and, made cookies for that.

A friend had a group of us over to celebrate another friends birthday. Betty + art and we get together once in awhile also. Cliff and I spent one day going to Missoula to Shop. One Night we had a baby Shower - but not at my house - Thank Goodness

Dale and his friend come down on the weekend of the 11-13 to hunt. Judy and the boys also come on the 12th. It was quite a house full. They did get an elk and they divided it. We had Dale's 1/2 cut and wrapped and it is in our freezer. We are to show it, Dale says. And, beside his freezer is full of deer. Hh. But, that's OK - Cliff and I like Elk - especially roast.

On Sat. Nov. 19th we left to go to Portland. We got as far as Tri Centric - that's over 1/2 way - then drove on in, arriving in time for Sunday Noon Dinner. That was pretty smart of us.

Debbie hadn't felt real good so she just relaxed and enjoyed having us. When we went shopping she stayed home. I helped her with Thanksgiving Dinner - Turkey, of course. I made a couple of things to help start her on her Christmas goodies - Fudge + Orange Balls. Then I did bring some home so I wouldn't have to make them again.

Matt was home from college. We played some games. Jim even liked a game I like real well called "Name Breat." He doesn't like too many games I like.

Jim is hoping to get a job that comes due the 1st of the year. It is another study of the Cub death problem. I sure hope he gets it.

We left Deb's the Sat. after Thanksgiving and drove down to Preneville - near Bend, OR. Joyce (Robinson) Johnson and her husband retired there three years ago. It was a good visit. They have a nice home, but Taxes are getting so much in Oregon, that they are talking of moving to Wyoming.

We visited their church with them Sunday Morning (Pres.) then she fix'd a great Brunch. She + I shopped around a little in their small town (about the size or little larger than our Hamilton). Then we drove into Bend - did some more looking around and we took them to dinner.

We left their place Monday Morn. after going out to Breakfast. Since we got such a late start we were able to only get to Ritzville - that's $\frac{1}{2}$ way home.

But we went on in on Tuesday, arriving late afternoon - tired, but happy to be home.

all the time we were in Oregon we were cold - guess it is because that is a damp state. Anyway, I came down with the Creeping Cwd. Terribly bad to go to Doc for some help. I usually get sinus infections and Bronchitis once or twice a year - so it was old hat to me.

It wants to linger on so now I still have an occasional cough and lots of frogs.

Taking time out for a perm was not the smartest thing I ever did, but I didn't realize that I had more than a stuffy nose. But then, who wants to be ugly when they are sick. Things are bad enough as it is. By the 8th I thought I was pretty well on the way to recovery, so I did our Bible Study, had my hair done, grocery shopped, went to Darby (25 miles South of us) with Betty Swase to go thru some new shops and then we all four drove to Lolo (40 miles North of us) to have dinner. It was a good, fun day, but I was pooped. I found a painting that would look great in my living room. However, I don't like it well enough to sofa-bark to get it.

... We ladies at the church had our 3rd Annual "Merry Mugs & Muffin Morning" Sat the 10th. We exchange Mugs and the one who's mug you get is your prayer Partner for the year. We always have a good time at this Brunch.

I had the Lussac's over for Steu the 12th because they were leaving for a few weeks. And, besides it helped Cliff while away the evening. He was a bit nervous because the Doctor was going to put a shot of cortisone in his back (Spine). Cliff has had a lot of pain the past few years and it gets real bad sometimes. The Doc thinks he has a blockage in the spine which is supposed to be hollow. Probably caused by wearing so much all his life. He calls it a "Truck Drivers" problem.

Anyway, he had it done on the 13th. He hasn't felt too good tho. He still has problems at different spots - from back to arms to head. But this is probably caused by the spinal. His original back problem is much better. We are hoping time will take care of the problem that is like traveling muscle spasms. Fortunately, he finished a couple of woodworking projects he had going.

1st he made two Oak Trays, about 12 x 16, for a "Homemade Gift Exchange Party" we were going to. My Part was to fill them with goodies, which I did do. I put 19 different varieties of Candy & Cookies, plus a small loaf of Apple Bread in them. They went over very well I'm pleased to say. Fortunately Cliff felt well enough to attend that night.

He, also, made a Chess Board Table for Dale. We bought a nice Chess Board and Cliff made the table so that the Board sets right down into the Top. Dale is going to be mighty surprised.

Dale & Gody & Boys left Sunday to spend a few days at a remote Forest Service Cabin up near their property which is near Glacier Park. They were hoping to get to ski.

Gody's Dad is coming out from Minnesota on Dec 23rd. They will all come here afternoon the 24th and stay until Eve. of 25th. We will have a house full.

I made some soups (3 kinds) and will have two couples over for Soup Supper tomorrow night. Having Company is our favorite thing.

Mary, you must be in Goodwin's

Heaven with all those Grandbabies including Andrea. Sounds like you will have some great parties.

Sure hope you and Bill recovered from your ailments, as well as, all the kids.

I'm interested to hear if Craig moved to Texas or I should say - will be moving?

Oh!!! I just see that you sent the recipe Mary. I missed that the 1st time I read your letter. Should I get another copy for Willie or have you already sent her one?

Thank you for the news about Aunt Dorrie. But I guess her life was not all that happy.

Willie, I'm hoping your Vitamins are helping.
Cliff gets some from the Chiropractor that are very good. One pill does it all except for E.
I truly don't believe he has had as much stomach problems as he had before he starting ^{on} ~~on~~ those "salt" without "ed"
taking these Vitamins.

Gayle writes that Jay has moved back home. I think he missed home even tho he wanted to be on his own. Both boys are getting a lot of hours at their jobs - Christmas, you know.
They will spend Christmas Eve at Joan's Hill.
friends home. The two families get along pretty well. For Christmas Dinner they will go to Rodney's Bob's. They go there each year - or have the post 5 or 6 years.

Rodnie & Bob are like kids to us.

Debbie's family will, of course, be with Jim's family. But some years there were too many family gatherings and they rebelled - they wanted simpler things. They will go to Church and out for a late Supper Christmas Eve and then have Christmas Morning just for the four of them. Later in the day they will go to the Elders Newcombs for dinner.

I'll be fixing Turkey, and Trimmings.
Cliff wants coconut pie and Dale wants a Berry Pie - So Be it. I'll have Fruit Cake.

Bill got me hooked on fruit cake years ago. I still have the tin that those little fruit cake minitures come in.

Well, that must be all my news and I'm finishing this up at 11²⁷ pm. That's late for me since I've had this - whatever it is.

Willie, you & Ben will receive this close to Christmas so have a great time.

Mary, you & Bill have a wonderful New Year. Hope to see you all within a reasonable time again, Lord willing.

Much Love to you all Bernice

DEAR MARY ALICE

Hi from sunny California, God's blessings and good wishes through Christ Jesus. Thank you so much for writing and keeping us abreast of your life's happenings. It seems that even tho we live so far away our lives parallel considerably. We also are very busy, often "stop for small the moments", and we enjoy our families each and every day.

During our March-Bath by week we took time to vacation at Big Bear (old resort town). We timed our arrival just right. We got there three days after a snow storm dropped 22 inches, allowing for the roads to be cleared, yet we still got to play in some fresh undisturbed snow. We stayed in a friend's beautiful cabin. It was fully furnished and could have been lived in full time with little or no work. We also managed to leave two days before another major storm came through dropping 2-3 feet of snow and with high winds that knocked down over a 100 trees.

It was Daniel's first experience with the pillowy white stuff and he was thrilled. He especially enjoyed shoveling and throwing snow at dad. We all did a little shoveling and exploring, snowball throwing, eating and generally goofing off. We went out with a big emphasis on the fact that Laura was on vacation too. I'm sure that Laura enjoyed not having to work, too she would never complain.

We saw some of the Mount Blue Jays, usually squirrels and chipmunks, and some that came up to the cabin porch. We cut up an apple for them and they ate it like a nut. Just looking at the snow covered mountains and the beautiful clear lake was worth it.

Eve was really good at shoveling and was a big help in entertaining Daniel. Every morning she would take Daniel down stairs and get him started watching a cartoon or eating some cereal while Laura and I got to stay in bed. Those two play so well together, watching them is truly a blessing in itself.

The trip was just what we needed to lift our spirits that was sagging tremendously. Laura has been more than doing the three children, maintaining house, church, softball, bible study, neighbors, helping friends etc. I wish I had half of her energy. You know what it is like chasing two in diapers, Laura is better raising Daniel currently, which will be a big help. And I hadn't had a vacation for 2 years. With moving into a new home and having a new child in one year we stayed busy just working at home. There aren't complaints, just explanations for the need to vacation. Now we are back to normal or at least who is normal for us.

Eve's softball opening season is this Saturday. Next week it will be two games a week plus a practice. I am the score keeper because I won't be the best coach. I am too dominating and would probably make her nervous. Besides I'm excited to be a cheerleader, at least Eve doesn't mind my cheering as long as I don't bother the players too much and I never embarrass her. Kids grow up too fast.

Most of our flowers are blooming or trying to bloom. The tulips and roses are looking good as is

DEAR MARY ALICE,

Hi from sunny California, God's blessings and good wishes through Christ Jesus. Thank you so much for writing and keeping us abreast of your life's happenings. It seems that even tho we live so far away our lives parallel considerably. We also stay very busy, often "stop to smell the roses", and we enjoy our families each and every day.

During our March Birthday week we took time to vacation at Big Bear (ski resort town). We timed our arrival just right. We got there three days after a snow storm dropped 22 inches, allowing for the roads to be cleared, yet we still got to play in some fresh undisturbed snow. We stayed in a friend's beautiful cabin. It was Daniel's first experience with the pillowy white stuff and he was thrilled. He especially enjoyed sledding and throwing snow at dad. We all did a little fishing and a lot of sledding, exploring, snowball throwing, eating and generally goofing off. We went out to eat every meal, with a big emphasis on the fact that Laura was on vacation too. I'm sure that Laura appreciated not having to cook, tho she would never complain.

We saw some of the bluest Blue Jays, rascally squirrels and chipmonks, and wild burros that came up to the cabin patio. We cut up an apple for them and they ate it like it was candy. Just lookin at the snow covered mountains and the beautiful clear lake was worth the drive.

Eva was really good at sledding and was a big help in entertaining Daniel. Laura has been none stop chasing the three children, maintaining house, church, softball, bible study, neighbors, helping friends etc. I wish I had half of her energy. You know what it is like chasing two in diapers, Laura is toilet training Daniel currently, which will be a big help. And I hadn't had a vacation for 2 years. With moving into a new home and having a new child in one year we stayed busy just working at home. These aren't complaints, just explanations for the need to vacation. Now we are back to normal or at least what is normal for us.

I am the score keeper because Eva won't let me help coach, I am too dominating and would probably make her nervous. Besides I'm allowed to be a cheerleader, at least Eva doesn't mind my cheering as long as I don't bother the umpires too much and I never embarrass her. Kids grow up too fast.

Most of our flowers are blooming or trying to bloom. The iris and roses are looking good as is the Vicia, Daisies and African Garlic. The strawberries are ripening and I planted a small garden that is starting to take shape. Spring is upon us and I am enjoying it tremendously. This year I plan to fish a little more and work a little less, at least it sounds good.

Mom and dad are well. Diane and kids are about the same. I tease Diane because she turns 40 years old in May plus she has a lot of gray hair. (mom still doesn't have any gray). Of course she gives it right back about me becoming bald headed.

That is about all for now.
God's Blessings,

David

Hello, Hello!

April 10th

Well, it's April and I'm way behind in writing letters. So, looks like this year is like the last few. Good intentions, but - well you know.

I really enjoyed your last letter. I don't know how you keep up with all your family. With only two kids and one husband I never know where anyone is. I can't keep up with your kids let alone who is married to who and which children belong to who ??? (I'm confused). I'm even confused about your address. I'll call Mom and check ~~if~~ before I get this in the mail. How many times have you moved?

We are all fine. Jim is fighting a cold today. He's going to call in sick to work tonight so I know he doesn't feel good. I've been good today and kept his juice glass filled. Thank goodness for the TV remote control.

Jim still works at Sony. In fact, next week makes it 17 years! He's on nights again since Jan. 1st. I hate it, but he likes it. (7pm to 7am). He works 3 nights one week and 4 the next. At least that's the way it is supposed to be. But, of course it changes every second to third week and an extra night (or day) is thrown in. And every so often they want him to work different hours, too.

Jay (20 now) and Jason (18) have jobs where they have a different schedule every week. Then throw in college classes, friends, dates, surfing and etc..

 I'd never know who is where if it weren't for the message board I put on the fridge!

Jason has taken an interest in snow boarding.
 He's made several day trips with a friend. He always comes home sore and bruised, but he really likes it. Any spare time Jason has is taken up by his girl friend, Rory. She is a real sweetheart.
 She's a junior in high school, so her time is pretty full, too.

Jason's latest joy is his pick-up truck. He sold his Honda and bought a 1976, Ford, F-150, short bed, 4-wheel drive. It's lifted and has 40 inch tires! He calls it his "baby". I call it his "beast"! But he loves it.

Jim's love is still bike riding. He went out this past weekend for a "fun" ride. By the time he got home he had ridden 43.9 miles. That's not fun if you ask me. That's crazy! But he doesn't ask me. In a couple of weeks he's going to make the Rosarito to Ensenada (Mexico) 50 mile ride again. It will be his third time. There's a whole group of guys from his work going this time.

My job at the high school will end in June and probably not be offered next year. There's been a lot of budget cuts in the district and we're getting a new principal. He may make a lot of changes. I'm not sure I'd want it even if it's available. Working out the hours for two jobs and hurrying from one office to the other has gotten pretty hectic at times. We'll see. At least I kept my job at the dental office. It's pretty much settled down to two mornings a week, but at least I can count on it. And they are great about giving me time off whenever I want or need it. It's a definite plus to work with people for over eleven years. I know I can count on them and they know I'll fill in whenever they need me. We all get along really well.

We're all getting excited cause we get to go to Montana this June. We love it there and really enjoy getting to see Mom and Dad, Dale and Jody and Forrest and Fraser. I'm looking forward to just getting away for awhile. Jay and Jim are happy cause they get to take their bikes. Jason is happy cause he gets to take his girlfriend. She has never been to Montana and she has never flown before. It should be a fun time for everyone. It sounds like Dale has a camping/rafting trip planned. He always goes out of his way to do something special for us when we get up there. The kids will stay for two weeks and then come home. Then Jim and I get to stay another week. We're looking forward to that, too! I guess you can tell this will be a highlight of our year. We didn't make it up there last year. Debbie and family were there last summer. I don't know if they will make again this year or not. I guess she hasn't been doing so well again - health wise. Her doctor told her to take some time off and rest.

Well, I think I've rambled on long enough. Now you know more than you ever wanted to about the Cooks. Hope all is well with you and your family.

Take care!

Love,

Gayle & the guys

(Maybe)

Hello everyone!

Well 2 months has gone by and again its my turn to write. We are all well, so thats good. Hope for the same for everyone else. The weather is beginning to to warm up some. In fact we will be hitting the 90's degrees starting tomorrow if it didn't hit it today. Seemed like it did as I was very warm. Won't be long before we have the old swamp cooler or refridiration on day and night aga As long as the humitivity stays down it won't be that bad. Ha-Ha.

Seems like all Bill and I do is work. But we have been told that is good for us so we say okay, we won't complain (too much!) But since I have started full time now I don't seem to have as many hours in a day or a week as I used to hav But we have all worked at one time or another so we understand that don't we?

Craig and Amy got moved to Texas. Craig drove the 20 foot truck it took to mov their belongings and Amy drove Craigs car. They sold Amy's car before they le They will be looking for a newer one for her pretty soon. they are trying to g everything else done before they worry about that. So far they are doing fine with one car. Craig is working 10 to 12 hours a day so Amy takes Craig to work Then she goes to work at the Texas Barbecue and then goes and picks Craig up wh he gets off. Its working out fine for now. Have talked to Craig a couple of t es since he left. He hasn't had time to see much around Corpus Christi yet but what little they have seen is okay he says. They are about a hours drive to th beach and Amy has been there once to look around but Craig hasn't been there ye He says soon though. He says it may be a year before they come back to visit. Then the last time I talked to him he said Amy might be back here soon. Her mother who lives in Germany and is married to a German are in Arizona for a vis They will pay for Amy to fly here and home so she can visit with her mother. Craig said she will be here for about 1 to 3 weeks depending on how much time s can get off from work. Don't know what the date will be when she comes. Their address is==6717 Everhard Road #2413

Kyle is doing just fine in his new place. He says he is all moved in now. Jus needs to get a few things which he will do very slowly. First thing is a desk l says. So he is reading the ads and looking for used one. Hope he finds it.

Carrie went home and stayed there for about a week. Now her and Andrea are back Ramon will be bringing all the furniture, dishes, toys, clothes, etc. down on friday. The kids have separated. If it is permanent or what noone knows at the point. And this was the couple that Bill and I thought would make it through thick or thin. But then again they may yet. Time will tell. In the meantime Carrie and Andrea are living with us. Bill and I were alone for a month. Just long enough for me to completely reorganized and spread out for the first time. Well we no longer are spread out and organized. But we will all fit into this house. We are really enjoying our time with Andrea and Carrie. Andra is a super good baby. Is really enjoyable and loveable to be around. Carrie is a great mother. Since getting down here she has gotten herself a job and a car. Ramon is keeping the one they bought in November. Carrie bought a 1990 Isuzu "Implus Is really a nice car. She should get lots of use out it. She is working in a Mexican restaurant called Serrano's. Works monday thru friday 11am to 5pm. That good hours for restaurant job. She is a hostess.

Sierra celebrated her 2nd birthday in March. She is really growing. What a do she is. And talks non stop. I do believe she has passed her mother up and tal more than she does. Never though anyone would ever be able to do that but this 2 year old dynamite sure does. Must say she rules the roost at the Johnson hou hold. But they all love it. She is in a growing sprout right now and is get tall. Her and Tyler are about the same height right now and Tyler is at ut maybe $\frac{1}{2}$ inch taller. Also Tyler is 7 months older if that makes a differenc

Speaking of Tyler, he is all boy. In one months time he had to^{have} 3 stitches abov one eye, wore a cast for a few days on one arm as the doctors couldn't decide if his elbow was broken or not (it wasn't just bruised real bad) and then before they could stop him he went up and grabbed hold of a hot exhause pipe or a car and burnt his hand real bad. Lori is beginning to get paranoid with him She thinks she doesn't watch him close enough and I keep reasuring her she does that he is just a $2\frac{1}{2}$ year old active boy. How he hurt his elbow was he was pushed by a nighbor boy off of his play gym or what ever that thing is called. Anyhow he had landed on his arm wrong. The xrays made it look like it was brc maybe so they had a specialest take a look at it. He decided it wasn't but the it was bruised super bad For now he is doing fine. No cuts or bruises at all.

One weekend Bill and I babysat Tyler for 4 days and 3 nights. We thoroughly ha loads of fun with him but at the end of that time we were completely exhausted. Grampa and grandson are great buddies and get along beautifully. They spent ma hours out in the back yard together.

Lavee and Yosh came over from San Diego one weekend in March. On Sat. Lavee sat around and visited with me while Bill went to work and Yosh went out to the Gil River Indian Community. south of Chandler. Yosh is Japanese and he with his parents and brothers were one of the thousands of Japanese that during WWII was sent from the west coast to live in the middle of the Arizona desert in an Inte nment Camp. They spent 3 years there. This was an American refugee camp. The were not allowed to leave there at all. But they had their own hospital, churc newspaper, shoe repair shop, canteen & high schools. Anything that was needed they received but was not allowed to leave Anyway this was the 50th year reuni of its closure. Japanese from all over the U.S. came. Now there is nothing there but a monument to them and cement slabs of the various building. Yosh found where he had once lived there. Was able to figure out where the dining hall was, where the hospital and a friends home was. On sunday we went out t have Yosh show us around. Yosh' family was very well off financially and when this happen they lost everything. But he is not one bit bitter. He says some- times things in life are not good. This was one of those times. Actually Yosh was young enough that it was no big deal to him. It was just another adventure in life but to his parents it was very hard. His father died in the 1950's but his mother is still alive. She is 94 years old almost. Anyway as I like histo I enjoyed seeing this even thought there was really nothing there.

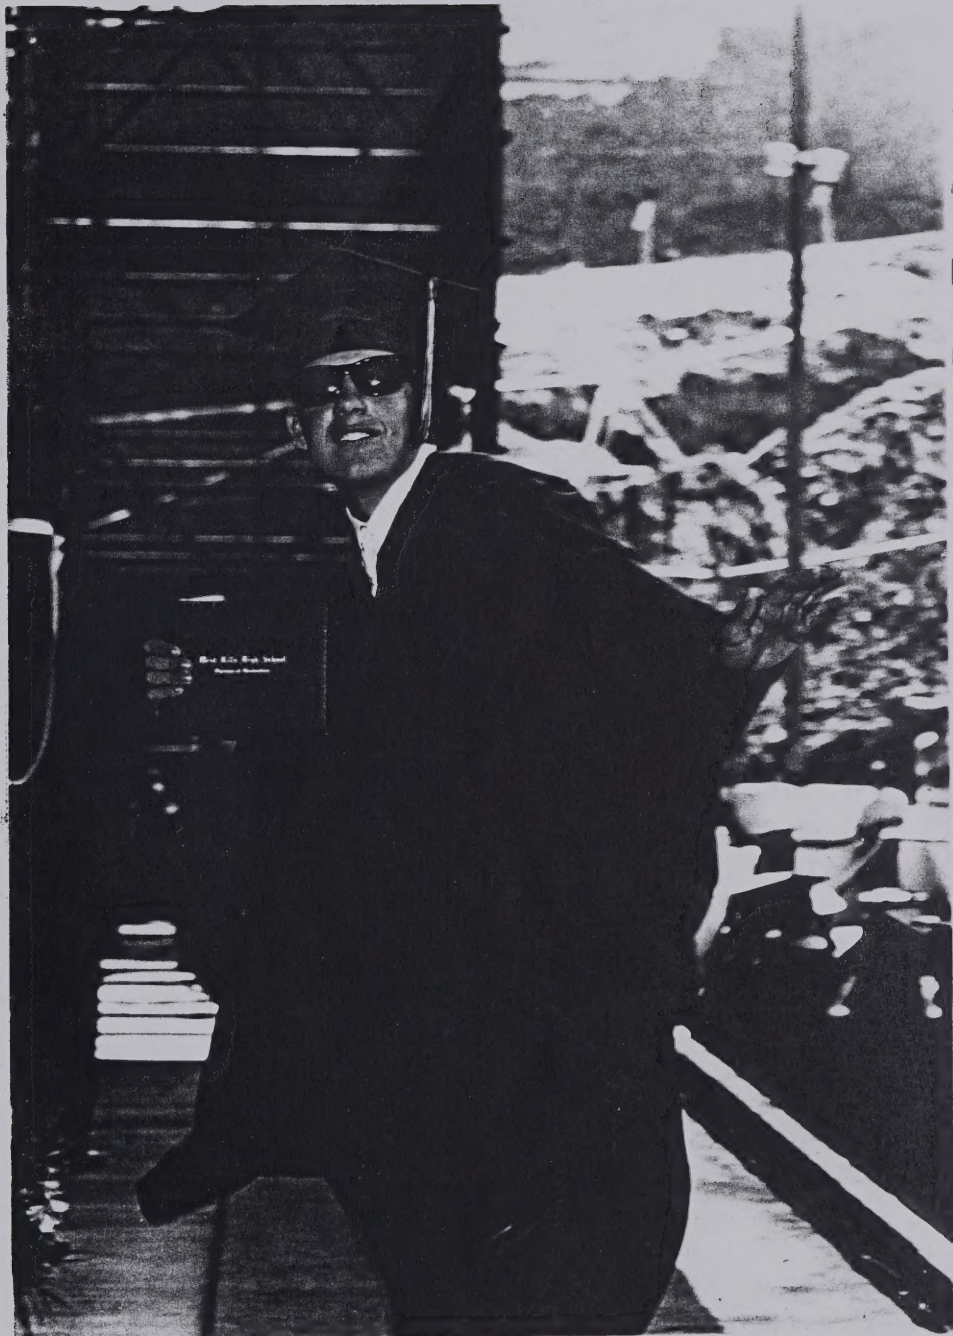

Bennie, after reading Willie's letter i'm sure you have figured out that Willie is in Arizona. She has rented a 2 bedroom condo (or something like that) and now is trying to recuperate from her various illnesses. I went over Sat. and w did some minor cleaning and then went out to eat mexican food for lunch. Had a real nice day even though it wore Willie out. Then sunday, the next day Willie traveled over here and we did a little family research work. She went home to Scottsdale to recupe from her 2 days with me. Anyhow she is going to brave it again and come back tomorrow afternoon after I get home from work. More resear work maybe. Anyhow its good to see her again even though I wear her out. Wis you could join us. She may be here for about another month. Ben is coming down on Easter weekend to visit with her and then will go back home again.

Well its getting late so I need to close for this time. Sorry its a short one but its the best I can do for this time. Do write soon and everyone take good care of yourselves.

Love from us all

Maupalici + Bill

P.S. Am sending Jason's picture back to you. Both Willie and I tryed to get copies made but no one would do it as it says not to copy on the back of it. Oh well we tryed. And thanks for allowing us to keep it all this time trying to get a copy which we didn't get. It is a very cute picture

Hello Everyone —

What a lovely day so far (it is around Noon), and yesterday was even better getting up to 70°. However, if we don't get some more snow we are going to have a dry, hot summer with fire hazards. They said that last year and it rained a lot all summer. So — I guess we'll take what we get and make the best of it.

Since I talked to you girls after Christmas (I think) — clever me — I just checked the Telephone Bill — it was Dec. 26th. So, you know we had a nice Christmas.

The kids came up again on N.Y. Eve Eve., and spent the night. Sat. Morn. there were 5 Bull Elk in our yard. Everyone had quite a show. All of the Elk had 4 or 5 spikes. They have been back a couple of times. Once our friends, the Russos, were here at dinner time. I mean, when we entertain we go all out.

The kids went home in the afternoon and we went to a N.Y.'s Eve Party. Hadn't planned to stay until Midnight, but we were having fun and it was a new year before we knew it.

Cliff and I have enjoyed football this past year. We were disappointed the Chargers didn't win the title, but SF earned it. I like Steve Young, anyway.

Willie, Thank you for the pictures of the kids. I enjoyed your letter with all the pictures. and, thank you for the Valentine's Anniversary cards. What a great new hobby. You were thoughtful to include us.

By the way, did you ever get the shoulder muscles loosened up? How's the hand?

The Pittman's place sure did hope during the Holidays. It was great to hear all your family enjoying one another. Sounds like Carrie doesn't know if she is coming or going.

Willie, you said you watched the "Ball" fall in N.Y. But, Mary said she didn't watch the "Ball" go up. Now which is it? Up or Down? I've never heard about a "Ball" in N.Y. before.

Congratulations, Mary & Bill. None at all!!! It grows on you. Cliff and I love our solitude. We love it when the kids come - but love it when they go home.

But, that's the way it should be, I think.

But you miss Craig. Why don't you punish him for going away? Tell him you are coming for a two months visit!!

Say, Mary, now that you have a nice old wooden Rocking chair - do you get any work done?

No, Jim still does not have a job. The Research for that Study hasn't gotten off the ground yet. Who knows, it may never. I just wish he could get something permanent. Research on grants are very iffy.

January went flying by. I still do my thing in the Hospital Auxiliary and Women's Work at Church. I, among other things, am in charge of organizing dinners, lunches or whatever is needed when there is illness or a death in the family of one of our Church folks. There have been 2-3 the past two months.

Cliff had been given a gift certificate for a new Steak House down in Dorby (30 minutes South of here). We invited the Russos and went down one night in Jan.

Boy - was it ever good!! The zucchini was great. One man told the cook that anyone who could make zucchini taste good - is a real good cook.

Yes, Willie, Cliff and I had planned to go out and treat ourselves to an Anniversary Dinner. at least that's the plan. There aren't many places to choose from and some of the better places are closed on Monday. Probably will go later.

I had another tooth break in January that had to be fixed - then, last week I started hurting on the right side of my head. By the middle of the night I couldn't even sleep and Tylenol didn't even faze it. I was able to get into the dentist the next afternoon. I wasn't sure just where the pain was coming from, sinus, ear, muscles - but the dentist was the best place to start. Turned out I had two teeth with decay streaks and one went down to the root nerve. He fixed that one and we hope that will do it. If not I'll need a root canal. The other tooth gets fixed next month. (Dentist is going out of town for two weeks) He said I was going thru a decay period.

Well I already knew that!!! all over!!!

All the Sees Chocolates I had eaten hadn't helped, I bet.

Our Church folks had a Valentine party this month. I volunteered to make all the desserts. I made 5 different things - Way more than we needed, but it was fun. I made them using cherries, raspberries and Strawberry and rhubarb. all red, of course.

Jody went to Minneapolis to visit her Dad last weekend. Dale and Boys come up here on Friday Night. Dale went home Sat. Morn. and left the boys. He is swamped with work. Friends come by and picked up Forrest to take him Skiing with them on Sunday. He does love to ski and is pretty good. Froser is pretty good too, but he doesn't use poles yet. We took the boys home on Monday afternoon as they were out of school that day.

The Feb. 4th weekend the kids were here and went Skiing (a hour's drive South). I hadn't seen them ski so Cliff and I drove up, had lunch with them, watched them ski some and brought Froser home with us. The others skied some more.

Dale had fallen and scrooped the top of his nose. We teased him about that.

This past Wed. Eve. the Hussas invited us to go up to Missoula with them to see the Harlem Globe Trotters.

We stopped for Supper at the Sizzler.

first. I was disappointed a bit. What a lot of "put on". Even the game appeared fake. But - we enjoyed some laughs and good company.

Cliff, is having a lot of trouble with his back - still. The shot in Dec. helped some, but it is just as bad now. Driving seems to bother him if he goes for any distance. Like everytime he drives to Massoula he is bad the next day. Doctor thinks he has a lower spine problem that might be fixable. Cliff is getting a cat scan on Monday so we'll see. He has pain pills but they make him groggy and he hates that.

Oh yes, Mary - Dale loved his chess Table. He was really surprised. We took picture but they didn't turn out very well. I'll send negatives, Willie, but first I need to get a couple done for myself. I'm just slow.

We had planned to "Go South" in March or April, but have changed our minds. We are staying home thru Summer. Maybe take a short trip or two in the Trailer. Cliff just doesn't feel up to driving or even sitting while I drive. But he is going to have to get a lot better before we even go 2 hrs. from here.

We, also, have to get the roof repaired over the trailer Port. That's an expense we hadn't planned on this year.

Goyle and family and Jason's girlfriend are coming here the last week of June.

So, it's going to work out just fine anyway. Jason and Rory have been going steady for 2 years. She's a very nice girl, but has one more year of high school so they are not going to "get serious", they say. Rory is excited about coming here. She hasn't had a chance to go many places and has never flown before. She asked Goyle if they had to wait til June to come.

We are hoping to put together a 3-4 day camping trip up in the Glacier Park area along the Flathead River. That way they can float. There are some rapids in the area to excite them a bit. Of course, Dale will head this up.

Cliff and I won't have that much energy.

I'll organize the food - that's it.

Gayle doesn't enjoy camping a whole lot, but said she could handle that because it would be fun to see the guys & gals having a good time.

The kids will go home after two weeks. Gayle & Jim can stay three weeks. Should be lots of fun.

Well, that's it!! Life will ~~move~~^{move} along and that's the way we like it.

You all take care

Much love to you all

February 6, 1995
Monday afternoon
Temp. in the 80's

Dear Willie, Bennie, Ben & Cliff & anyone else brave enough to tackle reading this=====

After a hard morning at work I'm now at home by myself for a change so I will finally start a letter to you all. So here goes.

Well I last wrote at the beginning of December. Dec. 10th Carrie, Ramon & Andrea rode in in their new car. Boy were they proud to be showing it off. They got a 1990 Maverick. And Bill & I are so relieved to know they are driving around in a good vehecile finally. With their trips back & forth to New Mexico its good to know they have a good car. Its very clean, nice & comfortable. They are really enjoying it too. They stayed until the 27th of Dec. We had a wonderful visit with them. I worked a lot during that time so didn't see as much of them that I would of liked but thats life in the fast lane, right?

We had Carrie's christmas dinner on Christmas Eve. If I say so myself it sure tasted good. We had turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes & gravy, fresh green beans, 2 jello salads, fruit salad & rolls. Plus a cake, fudge & chocalte chip cookies for dessert. Thats what she wanted & thats what she got. Next morning everyone was back for the gift exchange. With so many of us here there sure was a pile of wrapping paper & ribbons in the middle of the room. We couldn't even see over the top till Sierra decided to play in all. She smashed it down real nicely & then everyone could see each other from one side of the room to the other. Then later in the afternoon Bill & I, Carrie & family & Kyle went back to Robins for another dinner. We were joined by Garys family too of course. I won't talk about how big around the middle I am now. I look just like what a grandma should look like, Big round and plump. Ha-Ha. Craig & Amy couldn't come to Robins as they went over to hher dads. And Lori & Al couldn't come cause Al's mother & step-dad had come to town for 24 hours with them and they stayed home to have their celebration with them. And Carrie & Ramon had been running back & forth to Queen Creek & back to be his family too. So everyone was super busy but I do believe enjoyed their christmas holidays thoroughly.

Dec. 14th Carrie, Lori, Amy (Craigs girlfriend) & I met Cheri & Kristy (Bills brothers wife & daughter) at the Spagetti Company in Tempe for lunch. UMMMMM good food was happily enjoyed by all. Robin had wanted to come too but her schedule wouldn't allow it. But Cheri showed up with gifts for all. She is in to flower arrangements as a hobby. So out of christmas tins, old jars, etc., candles & lots of greenery she made christmas decorations for the girls. Very pretty stuff she created. And each of the girls loved them. For me--- well about 6 months ago I had given her grandpa Ham's old bedpan I had & had asked her what could she do for a decoration. I had said I like Boston ferns & would like maybe something put together with that in mind. She never got around to making it and letting me know how much it was going to cost me as I had planned on paying for whatever it would cost. She said she felt so guilty for not doing it as soon as she had said she would that it was my Christmas card from her as she was not sending them out again this year. She never does so that was no news to me. Anyway my Christmas card fits very nicely in the front bathroom on the counter. Must say that old bedpan turned out real nice.

Well Bill has gotten home and taken his shower & is now sitting out of the patio. He did such a beautiful job of cleaning up the yard this weekend he says he wants to just sit and look at it. So I am letting him do just that one thing.

Dec. 18th found Robin, Brandy & I at their church attending the christmas program. Instead of the usual program with the birth of Christ they did something a little different this year. The program was called "Radio Days" Started the program with the end of the depression and beginning of WW11 era. Having the big band theme to play all the christmas ^{music} of that time they threw in a beautiful christmas message of love, giving & sharing. Using themes from the old radio shows such as Amos & Andy, the Green Hornet, Burns & Allen childrens shows, soap operas & a few commercials of the time (Phillip Morris & Texaco) they put on a fantastic show with a message of goodwill that people who were there to enjoy the program won't forget it soon. It really took me down the old memory lane too. I was soooooooo young then but I do remember a lot. And I thoroughly loved the program.

Well back to Dec. 14th & lunch with Cheri & Kristy.

Knowing that Kristy was as bad as Cindy & Karen in loving animals I asked Kristy who has a dog and 4 cats if she knew anyone who would love to have a weird cat. I of course was refering to K.K. Well of course she did. She followed me home after lunch & then left with K.K. & all his paraphernalia. Oh yeah at that time she also had a small fish bowl with a couple of gold fish & a bird which she has since given away. Well her and Matt's (her husband) favorite pet is now K.K. and they are looking for homes for 2 of their cats. They claim that K.K. is the most fun, loveable, playful & strange cat they have either known. They love him to pieces. Thank goodness. That makes Bill & I very happy to know that K.K. has a good happy home still. We really loved that cat but was just tired of pets. We don't ever want anymore unless Bill gets a donkey or a goat!

Dec. 28th or was it the 29th (I can't remember) Carrie calls from Albuquerque all happy and thrilled. It was snowing for the first time since they had moved there. Andrea thought it was the most wonderful stuff. Carrie & Ramon bundled her up & took her out into it. She loved it and cried when they brought her back in the house. But Carrie said Andrea was so cold but still wanted to stay out in it.

While Carrie was here, Carrie, Ramon, Robin, Brandy, Ryan, Kyle & I all went to the movies one afternoon. We took up one whole roll of seats and laughed all the way through Tim Allen in the Santa Clause. Was a real cute movie. And speaking of movies the movie star of the family ended up on the cutting room floor. Even my car wasn't in it. Boy do these people not realize what they have done. We are all heart broken to think that Kyle did not make it to the big time at this time. Oh well he had fun in the meantime. So guess you all won't have to look for this film.

New Years Eve was really BIG! During the day we babysit. (Bill & I) We had Tyler all day while Lori & Al went to Prescott to install a stove. Sierra was here only long enough for Robin to take Brandy, Ryan, Ricky, Joy & Kelly to the movies. Ricky is Garys nephew and Joy & Kelly are his half sisters. Gary was off skiing & Annmarie (Garys sister who has custody of their half sisters) was in Las Vegas. But I remember everyone who went to the movies that day had a ball but said the movie was lousy. They all came back laughing & joking around a lot so they must of had fun. After all the kids left Bill was in bed by 8:30 & me at 10:30. Yes we are the last of the big time party people. We didn't stay up to watch the ball go up in New York. Ha-Ha Anyhow what I am getting around to is that the daughter gave me a old wooden rocking chair she didn't want anymore. It is pretty sturdy but looked bad. So while I was taking care of Tyler last friday I took Tyler and the old rocking chair out in the back yard and sanded it down. Tyler tryed to help me. He was no good at it but he had fun. Then I took that Old English furniture polish (th dark cover up) and oiled the chair down good. I can't believe how cute that old chair is. I really like it and Bill was amazed that it turned out as good as it did. Am I good or what? Ha-Ha

Well its dinner time so believe its time to quit for this time.. Maybe I'll add more later or maybe I won't. Depends on my mood and how much food I eat. So for now-----bye!

Well dinner is over with. We had tacos & a side ^{order} of refried beans. Was very good. Quess I didn't overeat as I have enough energy to continue on.

Just talked to Carrie. She is coming over to spend all day & night with us wednesday. Wants to visit some more before she leaves.

Also just talked to Craig. His plans have been changed slightly. He isn't going to Las Vegas after all. But he has to report to work on Feb. 18th now and they decided not to train him at all before he gets there. Something about training on the job instead. So he is planning on now leaving early to the middle of next week. Wants to be there a few days before reporting to work. Amy will work there for a month or two when they first get there but then she will look for work elsewhere after that. Craig will be her boss and he doesn't want to have a personnel life & a business life with her. She says she has no problem with that but Craig doesn't want to take any chances. Smart move I do believe. After working at Phyllis tomorrow morning I will go to Triple A Auto and have a trip tic made up for Craig to follow. Kyle may not be able to go with them now as this new plan cuts into his work week. Will have to wait and see what happens, I quess.

Kyle came over & brought some boxes he has emptied out. Though Craig could use them. He is going to California this weekend to a seminar for swimming pools.

Robin is going out of town with Gary tonight. Gary left this morning and went to northern Arizona to teach a class on fire safety, then drove home & picked up Robin who is driving him down to someplace down near Tucson where he teach another class tomorrow & then they will come home tomorrow night. Carrie is taking care of all the kids. Do I have a family on the move or what? See why I have a hard time keeping up with them. Good thing I don't try..

This past weekend Brandy had a feis in Phoenix. Her dance school sponsored this one. She did real well considering that she is barely getting over strep throat & is having a hard time with leg cramps. I went saturday and saw her dance. She won 1 2nd place, 2 3rd place & 1 4th place medals. Was in a total of 5 dances that day. Then on sunday she was in 7 more dances. I'm not sure exactly what all she won where. Robin said she won a couple of 1st place, a couple of 2nd place & some 3rd place plus a trophy where she tied 2nd place in one dance. Will get the specificates later when things aren't so confusing at the Johnson household. Robin, Brandy and I went to TGIF Restaurant after the feis for dinner on the way home from the feis. Brandy may not of felt good but she ate enoung food for 2 people. Quess she had worked up a appetite dancing.

Middle of January & Kyle bought a condo. It looks like a apartment to me but it is real nice. Big rooms. It is a one bedroom, bathroom, kitchen, Living room & patio. He painted it, shampooed the carpet & good old mom went over & cleaned his refrigerator, stove, oven & microwave & oiled his kitchen cabinets. Also cleaned his bathroom the first time around. He got everything moved out the weekend of Super Bowl sunday. It took him 2 weeks to move out. But Kyle has left & Bill & I are all alone for the first time in 34½ years. We think we like it. Hasn't been long enough for us to know for sure yet. Ha-Ha!! And Kyle loves his new home. Haven't seen much of him either since he left.

Well by Feb. 20th Craig & Amy will be in Corpus Christi, Texas. That is the day he reports to work there. In the meantime he quit JD's on the 28th of Jan. Then they took a vacation for a couple of days. Tomorrow he leaves for Las Vegas for a week for training while Amy packs everything & then he will be back to load everything into a U-Haul & off they go into the sunset. Kyle at this point is planning to go with them so he can help drive the truck & help unload the truck. They already have a apartment to go straight to which make it easiler on them. I asked Craig if there was marriage in the near future and he said that he was never going to get married ever. Time will tell if he changes his mind or not.. Amy is a real sweet girl and we all think the world of her. I think I did mention that Craig was going to work for Kenny Rogers Roosters Restaurant in my last letter. I'm just assuming you all know what I'm jabbering about. We will miss him though.

Jan 7th (I think) Ramon drove Carrie & Andrea back down here. He is (was) working 10 to 12 hours days 6 to 7 days a week for supposedly 3 weeks and then he was suppose to go maneveurs for a couple of weeks which would of left Carrie alone alot so she decided she wanted to come back down here for more visiting. Ramon though that was a fine idea & brought them down. He only had 1 day off so he flew back home the same day. But in the meantime he never went on maneveurs as he was kept working the whole time. The rest of his troop went without him. Ramon is very smart and the air force has found this out. They are giving him a lot of training on the computors to go with all the knowledge he already ^{has} of them. But finally his work load is slowing down and he misses his family. So next saturday he is flying back down & taking them back home on sunday. Carrie and Andrea has stayed with Robin this whole time. This has been real good for them to get to know each other as ~~was~~ Carrie was 6 years old when Robin and Gary got married and then we moved to Colorado. They have really enjoyed each other and definitely gotten to know each other. Both have completely different personalities but are enough alike they do okay together even though there is 13½ years difference in ages.

One of the ladies I work with I also work for. She was having me help her with her dusting in her house (its big & full) while she was taking care of her mother who had alzheimer's disease. Well her mother died the week after Christmas but she is still having me come back to help her now and then untill she gets caught up. So tomorrow I will go over for a couple of hours to help her. I've also helped her in cleaning her daughters house. Her daughter come down with pneumonia a few weeks before Christmas. It was (is) the walking around kind. But she has gotten way behind in everything so Phyllis (the mother) gave me to her daughter as a Christmas gift for a while. Phyllis & I are getting her caught up with her house work and every other week or so we go clean up her house. Her daughter loves us to pieces as she works full time and goes to school full time plus has a husband and 2 kids to take care of. And she is another Willie and thinks everything has to be perfect at all times. Sorry Willie I just had to throw that in there.

Dear Family,

The way this year is hop, skipping and jumping along already, it'll be gone before I know it. Although, it's passing fast I have very little news or if I tell the truth I don't have any. We are well, as well as two old folks can be, and Ben is long over he's awful cold of a month ago. He persists with all the things he does to keep himself busy. He has been making a huge effort at getting the tractor started for over a week now. He's had it on "the charger" all this time, except at night. He want let it run at night, however, I don't know the reason for that. He came in today, and said, "well I guess I'll have to buy another battery". What a sad face he displayed. I had thought he had just bought one last year, and I thought there should be a warranty on it. Come to find out the battery is eight years old, and that's "OLD in Battery Years". Ha Ha! So anyway, I said, "for pete's sake, go buy another battery, and stop fooling around. As might be expected, he thought I was probably right. Men do the silliest things, don't they? It's Sunday, so he's enjoying the golf game, and a little while ago he was watching the harness races. Those horses are so beautiful. It want be long until he will be napping.

Here at the foot hills of the snow laden mountains the weather continues to be crazy. What is going on, anyway? One day, it's fall with a chill in the air, and maybe a little rain. Next day it's freezing cold with a tiny bit of snow kissing the warm earth. Then the next it's spring, beautiful and warm, with flowers peeking out, trees blooming and animals roaming. The animals don't know what's going on any more than we do. A week or so ago the skunk was even traipsing around the yard like it belonged to him or her (what ever the case might be). We continue, as always, to enjoy the winter birds.

Cindy's still working part time at a couple of jobs. The kids, except for a week of the flu, continue to enjoy school. Especial Summer, who has learned to get involved. Both have birthdays this month. Karen does too, and she will be an old 29. Boy, am I old! She claims she is going to quit work in August whither Matthew has a job or not. She said she was so tired all the time. Did I tell you she has a sleeping illness? Anyway, they have her set up with a device, like a helmet, that she wears when she is sleeping. It's a big pain she claims, but it is helping her get a pretty good nights sleep. She'll need to wear it the rest of her life. Matthew thinks it's really helping a lot, and she's not such a grouchy old bear all the time anymore. He told me that when she wasn't home, and said, "I'd never call her a grouchy old bear to her face, she would do me in". Ha Ha! Matthew is still doing a lot of substitute teaching. Still haven't hear from Randy, so don't know what's going on in his life. Hunter is feeling fine, still taking his medication, and waiting until the end of March for another MRI to see if that tumor is gone yet. He is getting so tired of the three shots a day. What a good sport he is, though. Ben was talking to Hunter the other night, and little Zach (our little pistol!) came up to him, and said, "who you talking to"? Hunter is always so patient, and said, "Grandpa Brown". Zach just loves Ben to pieces, so he wanted to talk to him. He's conversation went like this, "Hello Grandpa, I love you, I love you lots, gotta go to bed now, Bye". Ben never did get to to say anything. Cute!

Felicia is still happy being back with her Mother and new baby brother down in South Carolina. She had her name in the paper a couple weeks ago for getting all "A's". The credit for that goes to Betty who did a great job teaching Felicia while she was living with Betty and Hunter all those years. Betty is one that thinks it's her duty to spend many, many hours a day teaching the kids how to learn, and making sure that they do. Benjamin III is still the brightest one in his classes, and Zach is a very smart kid. He can hardly wait to start to school. Betty said, "that poor teacher". He's not quiet like Benjamin. If they are learning something new he has a bag of question on any subject that want quit, and he wants all the answers right now.

I have been working day and night on the family tree. Some day we'll get it right and into the computer. I have been working on Ben's family also, which is even harder than ours. I would like to be able to get everything we have into the computer, so I can go out and do some more research. As much work as that is, I think it's great when something new is discovered. Since the Bible tells us that unless we learn about our passed, we're destine to relive it. I would hate for anyone to have to relive some of my life, so I will put it on paper, and our great grandchildren can learn about their passed, and can make their own future, and not have to relive ours. Well! don't quote me, but it says something like that.

Still having trouble with my lungs and strength, so may (almost sure, I will) go down to Arizona for a month, and see if that helps. The warm dry air and almost sea level terrain might help to heal my healing body. If I go, it will be around the first of April. I'll rent a place to stay, we are talking to a real estate person. There is a lot of places that start to become vacant about this time of the year, as the "Snow Birds" head for home. Bennielee I will probably rent a two bedroom place, so if you could or would like maybe you could fly down for a visit. Would love to see you again. I could even drive you over to your friends. Don't you have friends somewhere out there in the desert?

Since you girls where here to see me last September, and Bennie put so many good muffins and breads and goodies in the freeze, Ben thinks that it should be that way all the time. Well, Saturday and today I worked hours making goodies for him. He had to try everything, so he has been going around this afternoon saying I fed him to much, and rubbing his round tummy. Now you tell me, will I ever win? Ha Ha! Ho Ho!

I made him a silly card one night after he went to bed, and since then, he has wanted one every morning. I have had to start him a book of cards, which he pulls out every once in awhile and looks at. He just wants to keep me busy I think, as if I didn't have enough to do already. Like I said before, MEN!

06 March 1995

Well, I didn't finish this communication yesterday, as you can see. I needed a nap, and then it was dinner time, and I made a left over pork roast dish that took a little time. Since everything was a repeat on TV, or we had seen it, we watched a movie. It was John Candy's last movie before he passed away. The movie was dedicated to him. It was "Wagons East". Was pretty good. Any who! here I am again, even though, it is the next day, and still without any news.

The weather man said last night that we might (very little chance of) get a little dusting of snow during the night. Well! you guessed it, we received about six or seven inches, and it's still coming down. We were informed this storm was coming from California. Something is definitely wrong with last nights forecast. Ben said he had thought he might have gone into town, but fast changed his mind. He's listening to the radio, and has it so loud, I hope I can think. He's going in and out of the house, shoveling snow.

Talked to Cindy this morning, and she worked all week-end giving out samples at the grocery store. The doctor, isn't giving her all that much time at his office. He doesn't have all that many patients. Cindy said, she never saw such a man, who did so little work. The kids were both home, because she was taking them both to the dentist. They are both in braces now, so that means a trip for both to the dentist once a month. Troy wouldn't keep his retainer in his month, so the dentist has put a retainer in he can't remove. The retainer will be changed to a brace in a year or so. Troy's not at all happy with this, but it's his own fault. He keeps saying to himself, "this is for my own good, this is for my own good, I'll be happy about this later". The retainer makes him talk funny, and with his voice changing also, it's worse. We refrain from saying we told you so. We feel he wouldn't keep the retainer in his month, and now he is suffering the consequences.

Hope your back is better, Cliff. Know once you have back trouble it never wants to quit. You Rocky Mountain People, you know who you are, seem to be having dry weather also. We will have to pray for rain, but little lighting storms. You Desert People seem to be getting all our wet, wet, wet winter. Glad to hear everyone had a nice Christmas, but look out it's sneaking up on you again. Horton's your Bull Elk in the yard sounds so great. Would love to see them like that. You sure do put on a show when you have dinner guests. Do you grab the camera like I do, and get pictures.

Bennie every year thousands of people gather at time square in New York on New Years eve, and watch a big old ball they have there count down the seconds until the New Year. People shout and talk and seem to have a gay old time of it. It's been going on since before World War II that I know of, and it's been on TV as long as I can remember. People have been or usually are going to a party or something before the count down of the ball. The ball goes down, because they are counting off the seconds. Ben and I love our solitude also. Well! hang in there Pittman's it might happen again. Mary/Bill I hope you hear from your son more than I hear from mine. How is Craig liking it in Texas, and is he getting an accent yet???? Bennie hope your teeth are taken care of by now. I am due to go in for a cleaning, hope everything is ok. I hate the dentist. Ben had his check up last week and he's fine for another six months. I saw the Harlem Globe Trotters once, but it was so long ago that I can hardly remember it. It must have not made an impression on me, because I usually remember things like that better. Well! everyone should see them once at least. Am sure all our kids would like them. Horton's hope you have a ball when your kids from the South came for a visit this summer. Jason's girl friend sounds like a lot of fun. Bennie thanks for the ice box cookie recipe of Mother's. I remember those cookies, they were good. Also thanks for the article about Pikes Peak. It's interesting, so I sent you a copy, Mary. Love the group therapy in Montana. Mary don't wear yourself out working full time, or do you have time to ever get tired? Wonder if Brandy will have a dancing feis while I am down there. Would love to see her dance. That's really good exercise.

Must close for now, and get some work done. This is sure a long nothing for a letter, but I would rather write than work. Who wouldn't? The trouble is, you get all my ridiculous rambling. Hope your well, and everything is going well.

Our love,

Bennie keep enjoying all your new paintings. They do make for a happy pretty home. Hope Debbie is feeling better by now and Jim got the job he wanted. Wish them both well. Well is the creeping crud left you yet, Bennie? Sure hope so. Wouldn't want to keep that for long I wouldn't think. Is Cliff on the mend also. Truck Drivers problem doesn't sound like to much fun. Think I will try to avoid that one if possible. But really any back problems is not anything to play around with, no matter if it is in the shoulder area or way down deep on the tip of the spine or anywhere in the middle. Your gift for the Homemade Gift Exchange party sounded super great. Anyone would love to have a gift like that. All those good goodies plus a tray to keep. Sounds wonderful. How did Dale like his Chess Board table? Bet he loved it. No Bennie you don't need to send Willie a copy of the recipe for the vegetables. I sent her one. Did you get a chance to try it? If so what did you think? Its definitely different but good. At least that is my ~~opion~~ opinion.

Willie I bet Matthew & Karen looked so ~~cute~~ ^{cute} dressed as Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus. Would love a picture of them dressed. Would of loved to see the faces of the people driving by the house to see Santa standing by the road side. What a happy sight to see unexpectly. Also bet there was alot of people driving on to their destinations in a happier mood. Loved the pictures from the computer They fit into what ever you were saying very well.

Well will close for now. Its 9pm & I still have a couple of chores to do before bedtime and that is at 10pm tonight. Have another full day again tomorrow.

Hope to hear from you all soon. Take care. Love to all

Amarillo, Texas
(Randall County)
Tele.# (806) 376-4538

So. Hayes is not listed on the map but is located on the cemetery grounds.
Main gate to cemetery is located on 29th Ave. at Glenwood Park. On one side of the cemetery is a railroad track and houses and there is not an entrance gate. On the other side is Osage St. and on the back is 34th Ave. where the gate is kept locked. Randall and Potter Counties dividing line is at 29th Ave. in Amarillo.

Section 60, Lots 91 & 92 are located in the back side of the cemetery which is on the 34th Ave. side along the fence. 34th Ave. is kept locked. Enter thru the main gate off of 29th Ave. Go past the office to first street turning east (left). Will run into the Mausoleum at the "Y" in the road and bare right taking the road to the dead end where you turn to the left. Go to just before the dead end of the road. Section 66 will be in front of you and Section 60 is to your right (the section you want). Sixty is written on the curb. Walk almost to the back fence before looking for the cemetery marker. A lot of markers were covered up in 1993. Had to dig a little to uncover stone completely
